

CAR 'HITS' AUTO, KILLING WOMAN, INJURING THREE

Adele Ross, of Baltimore,
Dies of Injuries—Others
Seriously Hurt.

One woman was killed and three persons injured, two seriously, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a street car of the Washington Railway and Electric Company at Fourth and M streets northwest. The automobile was overturned and thrown across the street, completely wrecked.

Adele Ross, 23 years old, 5209 Poplar Grove, Baltimore, Md., died from internal injuries at the Sibley Hospital shortly before 8 o'clock last night. Physicians were unable to determine her injuries.

The Injured.
The injured are Miss Mabel Rawlins, 21 years old, Waldorf, Md., Sibley Hospital, cuts and bruises on the head and body and probable internal injuries, condition serious; Mrs. Bessie Moore, 23 years old, 1205 Tenth street northwest, Sibley Hospital, concussion of the brain, bruises and cuts on the head and body, condition serious; and Miss S. Moore, Clinton, Md., Casualty Hospital, cuts and bruises on the head and body, condition not serious.

According to police, the automobile, driven by Moore, was proceeding east on M street while the street car was going south on Fourth street. Moore failed to see the fast approaching street car and he had driven the automobile onto the tracks. With a loud crash the car struck the machine on its left rear side, throwing it at least 20 feet. All the occupants were pinned beneath as it turned turtle.

Two Ambulances Sent.
Two ambulances from the Casualty Hospital made a record run to the scene. After rendering immediate first aid treatment, physicians rushed the injured to hospitals.

The street car was in charge of Motorman E. B. Niles. He was not arrested. Coroner Nevitt investigating. Officials of the street car company informed Lieut. C. L. Plimmons, chief of the detective bureau, that they would be responsible for the appearance of Niles at the coroner's hearing.

Five District Couples Are Granted Divorces

Matrimonial troubles of five couples were more or less definitely settled by decrees recorded yesterday in the District Supreme Court.

A final decree of absolute divorce was awarded Mrs. Theresa C. Ruth from Gustav A. O. John. Mrs. Ruth M. Halgren was awarded a final decree for absolute divorce from Edwin Halgren. Fred Meyer was awarded an interlocutory decree for absolute divorce from Mrs. Elsie M. Towles. Mrs. Marie A. Hall was awarded a final decree for absolute divorce from Harry A. Hall.

Price of Wives Again Worries Divorce Courts

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—The momentous question of what a wife is worth has again arisen. Harold G. Phelps quoted $1,000 as the price for his wife, whom he had married a week previously. He ordered her to produce that sum or he would sell her at auction. She was granted a divorce today.

Joseph Lakasak traded a concertina for his wife and regrets the deal. He begged Judge Jacobs to help him out of the bargain.

For thirty-five years he was happy with his concertina, but two weeks ago, in an evil moment, he traded it for a wife.

Value of Brandy Placed at $50 a Gallon in Suit

Henry E. Ridenour, of the Woodward Building, Fifteenth and H streets northwest, filed suit yesterday in the District Supreme Court against Henry A. Sany, a real estate dealer, also of the Woodward Building, to recover $2,200, representing the alleged value of forty-four gallons of California brandy, which Ridenour claims to have entrusted with Sany for safe keeping. Through Attorney Bailey and Shea, Ridenour alleges that last December he delivered from the warehouse of the American Railway and Express Company at Kensington, Md., a 51-gallon barrel of the brandy, to the care of Sany's residence, the latter, it is said, having agreed to store it. Seven gallons of the brandy were delivered as agreed, Ridenour states, but the other forty-one gallons never reached him. The liquor is valued at $50 a gallon.

Surety Surrenders Shell-Shocked Man

Alfred Donald McCurley, 29 years old, of 2031 Ninth street northwest, a shell-shocked veteran of the world war, was formally surrendered to the United States Marshal today by George W. Ray, his surety, and committed to jail to await a hearing October 7 on requisition proceedings begun by the Maryland authorities. The accused was recently in New York after leaving St. Elizabeth's Hospital, where he had been recommended, after being originally charged with robbery and joy riding in this city. According to Assistant District Attorney Charles W. Arth, McCurley is wanted in Baltimore on a charge of assault with intent to rob.

James Street Dies.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Oct. 1.—James Street, aged 45, a Scotchman, who came to this section five months ago to look after the several herds of Hereford cattle in Albemarle County, died last night of general peritonitis at a local hospital, where he was brought a week ago with a ruptured appendix. Mr. Street came here from Nashville, Tenn., and made his headquarters at "Ben-Colyne," the farm of W. B. Bostert, at Keswick. He was a Mason of high rank, a member of Al Menah Shrine, Nashville. As he has no relatives in this country, the interment will probably take place here.

TRAFFIC WORKERS TO CONVENE HERE

Shipping and receiving men of large departments constituting the traffic group of the National Retail Dry Goods Association stores will hold a national convention Thursday and Friday at the Raleigh Hotel. They will be entertained by the traffic group of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association. Gen. Anton Stephen, first vice president of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, will welcome the visitors. On Thursday, at 12:15, the delegates will be the lunch guests of a group of local merchants.

A. C. Albee, of Strawbridge and Clothier, Philadelphia, will preside over the convention. Other officers and board members are: Vice chairman, L. King, Jr., of the Rosenbaum Company, Pittsburg; secretary, B. B. Blakeslee, of Best and Company, New York City; treasurer, J. E. Shay, of Butler's, Inc., Boston; board members, E. A. McElroy, of Gilchrist Company, Boston; Miss M. A. Evers, of L. Bamber and Company, Newark, and W. F. Friel, of S. Kann Sons Company, Washington.

The America Presented To Navy by Yacht Club

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 1.—The famous yacht America now belongs to the U. S. Navy and her permanent berth is at the Naval Academy. The yacht, which for some years had been in the custody of the Eastern Yacht Club, of Boston, was presented today in behalf of that body by Charles Francis Adams.

Rear Admiral Wilson, superintendent of the academy, handed Adams a brand new dollar note, the price agreed upon by the government.

What Congress Did Yesterday.

SENATE.
(Proceedings of October 1.)
Met at noon and recessed at 4:30 until noon tomorrow.
Tax revision bill debate resumed after opponents of the measure declined opportunity suggested by Senator Lodge, majority leader, to act some of their speeches out of the way.
Senator Ashurst assailed that provision of the tax bill levying in all States an income tax upon husbands when some States have laws, he said, which recognize the wife's community share in property and income. He named Arizona, Idaho, Nevada, Washington, New Mexico, Louisiana and Texas, where separate tax returns of the community property system, and said the laws of these States would be overturned by the proposed provision.
Senator Lenroot attacked a section which would exempt from

HELP SUFFRAGE, RUDOLPH SAYS

Assistance in securing suffrage for the District was asked of the students of Bliss Electrical School by Commissioner Rudolph, when he addressed them in the board room of the District Building yesterday morning.
"Observe the beauties, report the shortcomings of Washington, and urge your families and friends in the States to grant the Capital the vote," the Commissioner said.

Social Life At Rockville

Mrs. Amy Offutt, of Potomac, Weds Clarence H. Creamer.

ROCKVILLE, Md., Oct. 1.—A Burke Almonsey, of Hagerstown, arrived in Rockville during the week to spend several months at the home of his sister, Mrs. Alice Bouie.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Walker, who recently returned from their honeymoon trip, Miss Alice R. Darby entertained at cards at her home in Gaithersburg Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gardiner Darby left during the week to visit Niagara Falls and other places of interest, expecting to be away about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Dickey, of Washington, were recent guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison G. Ward, at Travilah.

Thomas C. Waters, of Germantown, left during the week to resume his studies at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore.

Miss Carrie B. Gischel, of Baltimore, is the week-end guest of the Misses Virginia and Eleanor Darby, at Gaithersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Matthews returned to their home at Edsons, Md., a few days ago after spending two weeks at Niagara Falls, New York, Atlantic City and other places.

Samuel M. Jones, of Baltimore, is visiting J. H. Brooks and William A. Jones, near Newtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Walker, the latter formerly Miss Marjorie Plimmon, of Gaithersburg, returned a few days ago from their honeymoon trip, and are making their home at Gaithersburg.

The first meeting after the summer vacation of the Home Interest Club, of Forest Glen, was held at the home of Mrs. J. B. McQueen, at Capital View, with a large attendance of members and others. Each member gave a short account of how she spent her vacation, and the program included other features. Refreshments were served.

A dance at the Montgomery Country Club was among the enjoyable events of the week in Rockville. It was given by the entertainment committee of the club, of which Miss Rose Dawson is chairman.

Miss Minnie Yearley spent several days during the week visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore.

Miss Louise Virginia Waters, of Germantown, has come to Bon Air, Va., where she will act as one of the bridesmaids at the marriage of October 8 of Miss Nannie May Bates, daughter of Mrs. Jacob Bates, of Bon Air, and Alan Hunter Sutton, of Richmond.

Judge and Mrs. Alfred C. Tolson, the latter formerly Mrs. Jennie Castleman Holtzman, of Washington, have returned from their honeymoon trip and are occupying Judge Tolson's home at Colesville, this county. They will, it is understood, spend the winter in Washington.

Whisky Revenue Receipts Double Since Last Year

Revenues from bonded whisky sales have doubled within a year, officials of the Internal Revenue Bureau announced yesterday.
Last year the revenues from that source amounted to $110,000. This year they have risen to $200,000. Most of the whisky withdrawn from bond is strictly for home consumption, upon a nonbeverage basis. Some of it, however, is drawn out by exporters who have a "foreign demand." Some of this is getting back into the United States but officials have no way of stopping it, with their depleted forces of dry-law agents.

DR. CONRAD HEADS VALLEY MEDICOS

WINCHESTER, Va., Oct. 1.—Dr. Charles C. Conrad, Harrisonburg, was elected president of the Valley Medical Association, which held its semiannual convention here, and other officers elected were: First vice president, Dr. Hunter H. McGuire, Winchester; second vice president, Dr. Harry Wallace, Greensville; secretary, Dr. Alexander P. Robertson, Jr., Staunton; and treasurer, Dr. J. M. Beidler, Harrisonburg.
Admission of about twenty new members brought the total up to approximately 100, representing every county in the Valley of Virginia. A feature of the convention was an address on "Depressive Insanity" by Dr. J. S. DeJarnette, superintendent of the Western State Hospital at Staunton, the oldest institution for the insane in the United States.

Carnival Netted Over $1,000.

CLARENDON, Va., Oct. 1.—The committee in charge of the recent carnival met last night to audit accounts, which showed in excess of $1,000 net. It was originally planned to improve the present fire house, but it is rumored that the Washington-Virginia Railway, owners of the land on which the engine house is located, is negotiating for the sale of the entire triangle between the Twelfth street line tracks and Wilson boulevard, reserving only the right of way for the Rosslyn branch tracks.

Among the marriages of interest during the week, was that of Mrs. Amy Offutt and Clarence H. Creamer, both of the vicinity of Potomac, this county, which was performed Tuesday by Rev. Nolan B. Harmon, Jr., pastor of the Rockville Methodist Church, at the home of the minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Marlowe have removed to Baltimore, where they recently purchased a home.

Richard L. Edmondston, of East Liverpool, Ohio, recently visited relatives and friends in Rockville.

ASS FIREMEN'S AID IN PRINCETON WEEK

Thorough inspections of District property and rigid enforcement of fire regulations, as the department's observance of Fire Prevention Week were ordered by Fire Chief Watson in a letter sent to all members of the Fire Department, yesterday.
"If each and every member of the department takes an active personal interest in the work of fire prevention, and if inspections are made during Fire Prevention Week as frequently as is possible without impairing the efficiency of the fire-fighting forces, there is no doubt that we will then be co-operating to the fullest extent in the work of the committee, and that beneficial results will follow," wrote Watson.

Miss Jennie Dyer Bride Of Robert L. Bromley

A pretty evening wedding was solemnized Saturday, September 24, when Miss Jennie Roberts Dyer became the bride of Robert Louis Bromley, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Dyer on D street southeast. The Rev. Howard F. Downs officiated. Miss Cleoda E. Bromley sang "Carrie Jacobs Bonds" and "I Love You Truly." The wedding march was played by James P. Horne. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white, georgette crepe, with a tulle veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. The matron of honor, Mrs. Nellie McCleary, wore a new blue over baronet satin—beaded in pink and blue. The bridesmaid, Miss Violet Davis, wore pink georgette over satin. Marvin McNeill was best man.

After the wedding ceremony a supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Bromley left for a wedding trip, the bride wearing a dark blue traveling costume of tulle and lace. They will be at home after October 5, at 1419 D street southeast, where they have taken an apartment.

The guests included Mrs. Etta Bromley, mother of the groom; Miss Cleoda E. Bromley, sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Dyer; Douglas Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon D.
